

Scott Burton

The Best
Speaker
You've Never Heard
Of!

"Wow! Where do even begin to thank you for your wonderful performance?" The part of the evaluations that one cannot portray on paper is the opportunity that you provided individuals to laugh who I have NEVER seen laugh in the many years that I have known them."

Jennifer Currin, MSW, Coordinator
Saint Joseph's Cancer Survivor's Network

"Many people rated you as a 10 or a 5+++ on a scale of 1 to 5. One person wrote, "Scott was absolutely THE BEST! Please have him back"

Susan Kramer Cancer Control Spec.
American Cancer Society, Harrisburg

"You were fantastic! I can't count the number of people who have called or spoken to me that have raved about your performance."

Rick Siefke, MSW
North Bay Cancer Center

"The nurses talked about it the rest of the week and came to our booth looking for you long after you were gone"

Cynthia Miller Murphy
Oncology Nursing
Certification Corporation

"Simply Breathtaking"

Dr. David
Eisenberg
Beth Israel
Deaconess
Med. Ctr.

Scott's Talks

Looking for Laughter in All the Wrong Places -

helps audiences see the potential in everyday, build positive attitude and inner strength through any situation.

The Three Steps to Survivorship -

We are all survivors. This program uses simple tools we all have to face the challenges of everyday.

Comedy/Juggling Show -

When what you need is quality entertainment.

Scott presents an upbeat, empowering and inspiring program detailing his one-year battle with stage IV cancer.

Scott is a headlining comic and best-selling author who has worked with Jerry Seinfeld and Jay Leno,

written for prime-time television and is a

World-champion juggler. At the age of 30,

he was diagnosed with a high grade osteo sarcoma. What Scott found in the battle was not loss, but LIFE! He turned his fears into strength and his tragedy to comedy.

This is not a talk about cancer. It is about potential. Scott's high-energy and very entertaining program goes beyond the fear of cancer or struggle in life and calls for joy, laughter

and expression of self everyday.

A needful message with great entertainment, or incredible entertainment with a potent message.

Either way, Scott's show leaves a memorable impression.

For info visit <http://www.sburton.com>

“Being afraid of life is the real disease...”

Scott's talk doesn't come across as a canned, motivational speech - because it's not. It is a story about finding perspective, finding our hearts, our laughter and humanity - within the cancer battle and beyond.

In telling his story of cancer survivorship and finding Life, Scott's audiences don't cry. They laugh like they never thought they would.

Scott is Energetic, Genuine, Inspirational, Profound and, as all his audiences agree -

Very Funny!

How do
YOU
energize your audience?

“Without hesitation, I would most certainly regard your performance as one of the best that any of us have ever witnessed, not only for the quality of the comedy and your physical skills, but inspirational component which uplifted us all.”

Thomas Eanelli, M.D.
Horton Radiation
Middletown, NY

“One woman had just come from hearing that her cancer had metastasized. She said that her angel must have led her here because she laughed so much that she could forget for a while that she had cancer.”

Kathleen Hardy CSW,
Program Director
Gilda's Club, Detroit

Where He's Been

ONS Ntnl. Congress	ASCO
Wellness Community	MD Anderson
GlaxoSmith Kline	Association of
The Leukemia &	Community Cancer Ctrs.
Lymphoma Society	Oncology Nursing
Network for Oncology	Certification Corp.
Comm. & Research	Gilda's Club
Virtua Health Found.	Tenet Health Care
WY State Cancer	Walther Institute
Control Consortium	National Coalition
Endocare	for Cancer Surv.
Sentara Health	United Way
Amgen, Inc.	Genzyme

Scott's acclaimed talk will: _

- *Effectively express the human side of all struggle
- *Show the need (and results) of passion on the job
- *Empower and entertain
- *Illustrate the healing power of humor
- *Generate passion, hope, laughter and inspiration

For more information on Scott's empowering program:

Scott Burton
2624 Tracy Ave.
Kansas City, MO 64108
<http://www.sburton.com> (612) 385-8387

... And that one is curable. ”